BELLOWS FALLS NEWS NORTHFIELD FARMS, MASS.

While searching the records of the town clerk's office recently the curious fact was brought to light that in May, 1798, the constable of the town of Rockingham sold for taxes the "South half of the Governors farm" by auction and the price recorded as realized at L. O. Clapp's. was $261. The Governor's farm was a portion of what is now covered by the village of Bellows Falls. It was 500 visit at Mr. Cady's. acres in the southeast corner of the town of Rockingham, and extended about a mile back from the Connecticut river on the north line of Westminster and about half a mile north and south on the river. James Gove was the name recorded as the purchaser. The Governor's farm was that seccrty of the governor of New Hampshire, Benning Wentworth, when the charter of the town was granted under

Announcement Extraordinary

To demonstrate the rich, beautiful tone of the celebrated Claxton Parlor Grand Piano which we will give away ABSOLUTELY FREE, as heretofore announced, and which is now on exhibition in our store, we have arranged for a Piano Recital by Mr. William Welcome to be given at our store on Saturday evening at 8 o'clock.

We extend a cordial invitation to the music lovers of our town to attend, as this recital will be a genuine musical treat.

Remember the date-Saturday, Nov. 22, at 8 o'clock.

The program will last one hour.
